

Ecumenical Service: 4.15pm

Sat Dec 3rd

Prayers

for the Planet

Hinde St

Methodist Church London W1U 3JY
for all concerned about Climate Change

Speakers: Laura Brooks - Tearfund

Laurie Michaelis - Quaker Living Witness Project

Service led by Richard Solly - Christian Ecology Link (CEL)

Christians from all denominations will gather at Hinde Street Methodist Church in London to pray for international action to prevent disastrous global climate change. The service forms part of an International Day of Climate Protest to mark United Nations Climate Talks.

Churches Together in Britain and Ireland, which brings together Churches of Catholic, Orthodox, Protestant, Anglican, Reformed and Pentecostal traditions, is supporting the ecumenical service through Operation Noah, the church-led climate change campaign.

World leaders will meet in Montreal from 29 Nov to 9 Dec to work on a new agreement for reducing greenhouse gas emissions beyond the Kyoto Protocol targets for 2008-2012..

Earlier in the day there will be a rally in London:

Climate March

The Campaign against Climate Change Faiths Group will be marching under a banner of solidarity and will meet at the start of the march. The march will go from Lincoln's Inn Fields at 12 midday (Holburn Underground) and end up at the US Embassy in Grosvenor Square.

Ruth Jarman from CEL invites you to join her and help carry the Christian Ecology Link banner rjarman@fish.co.uk Ruth will be speaking at the Embassy

www.campaigncc.org www.workface.org
www.globalclimatecampaign.org/index-en.shtml

Christian Ecology Link www.christian-ecology.org.uk 01524 33858

Ecumenical Service: 4.15pm

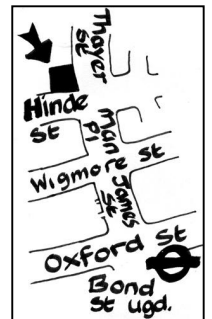

Sat Dec 3rd

Prayers for the Planet

Hinde St

Methodist Church London W1U 3JY
for all concerned about Climate Change

Speakers: Laura Brooks - Tearfund
Laurie Michaelis - Quaker Living Witness Project
Service led by Richard Solly - Christian Ecology Link (CEL)

Christians from all denominations will gather at Hinde Street Methodist Church in London to pray for international action to prevent disastrous global climate change. The service forms part of an International Day of Climate Protest to mark United Nations Climate Talks.

Churches Together in Britain and Ireland, which brings together Churches of Catholic, Orthodox, Protestant, Anglican, Reformed and Pentecostal traditions, is supporting the ecumenical service through Operation Noah, the church-led climate change campaign.

World leaders will meet in Montreal from 29 Nov to 9 Dec to work on a new agreement for reducing greenhouse gas emissions beyond the Kyoto Protocol targets for 2008-2012.

Earlier in the day there will be a rally in London:

Climate March

The Campaign against Climate Change Faiths Group will be marching under a banner of solidarity and will meet at the start of the march. The march will go from Lincoln's Inn Fields at 12 midday (Holburn Underground) and end up at the US Embassy in Grosvenor Square.

Ruth Jarman from CEL invites you to join her and help carry the Christian Ecology Link banner rjarman@fish.co.uk Ruth will be speaking at the Embassy

www.campaigncc.org www.workface.org
www.globalclimatecampaign.org/index-en.shtml

Christian Ecology Link www.christian-ecology.org.uk 01524 33858

