

Operation Noah

invites you to come and
Stop Climate Chaos

Saturday 4 November London
If you care, count.

The rally takes place on the eve of critical international climate change talks in Nairobi. Christian Ecology Link wants to see thousands of Christians join Operation Noah and other members of the Stop Climate Chaos coalition at the I Count rally and other events to send a message to Tony Blair and other world leaders that we share God's passion for justice, and care about climate change.

Gathering Point for Christians who care about climate justice:

Grosvenor Chapel, 24 South Audley Street, London W1K 2PA.

Doors open and refreshments served from 10am. Nearest tube station: Green Park.

11.15 Worship Service: organised by Operation Noah and Christian Ecology Link, also at Grosvenor Chapel.

12.00 Rally: Campaign Against Climate Change Rally in Grosvenor Square: speeches from MPs, MEPs and environmentalists.

12.45 March: from Grosvenor Square to Trafalgar Square, due to arrive by 2pm.

Tearfund are organising a service of worship at St Martins-in-the-Fields Church, just off Trafalgar Square, from 12.30 to 1.15, to which you will also be welcome.

I Count* -- Stop Climate Chaos Mass Gathering – Trafalgar Square.

The rally starts at 1pm. The main part is from 2pm to 3pm with inspirational speakers.

3.30 – 4.30: Refreshments and find out more what Christian organisations are doing on climate change: St Paul's Church, Bedford Street, London WC2E 9EF.

5.00 – 7.00: Pause for the Planet, Interfaith Silent Gathering. St Ethelberga's Centre for Reconciliation and Peace, 78 Bishopsgate, London.

For more information go to www.christian-ecology.org.uk/scc.htm or email info@christian-ecology.org.uk or phone 01524 33858.

The Operation Noah churches climate change campaign is part of the new Stop Climate Chaos coalition which includes a wide range of environment, development and faith organisations campaigning together on climate change. www.stopclimatechaos.org
